

Junior Leadership Class Quotes

I enjoyed learning about other people's stories and jobs because it provides a good perspective to how big the world is and how many opportunities there are.

--Kathy H., Cloverleaf High School

I'm surprised as to how many small, successful businesses are in Medina county and how interesting it is to hear from the different owners.

--Maggie P., Highland High School

I'm learning that even though I'm a leader, I can still take a step back and see other people's point of view and strategies.

--Abby E., Highland High School

I learned that if I can take what I'm really good at, and run away with that, I can be really successful in what I do.

--Nolan K., Wadsworth High School

When SOPREMA came in and talked to us about their business, it opened my eyes to the opportunities for internships and scholarships through businesses in our community.

--Morgan T., Medina High School
