Leadership Exploration and Development

Your leadership skills are among your most valuable assets. Honing and sharpening those skills can positively impact team morale, organizational effectiveness, and your bottom line.

The LEAD Institute professional development training is taught by top corporate trainers and university professors. Leadership Medina County staff facilitate content from the book Your Leadership Edge (O'Malley and Cebula, 2015). Classes are monthly from September through May.

Participants will receive a certificate of completion from Leadership Medina County's LEAD Institute at graduation. Alumni have access to a network of leaders across Northeast Ohio.
