Why Leadership Medina County?

"Leadership Medina County allowed me to connect with other Medina County leaders and network with them to help make our community thrive. Each person brought a new perspective, making this experience one I would recommend."

Ron Paydo

Community Bank President and Business Banking Area Manager, Huntington National Bank

"Leadership Medina County, with its collaborative approach to learning, connecting, and working on community projects, gets the best out of its participants. This collaboration throughout the months-long process helps forge long-term community-based relationships which will benefit future civic endeavors. Learning about, observing, and exercising different leadership styles is definitely a value-added part of the experience."

Dr. Richard Shewbridge

President, Medina Hospital

"Being an alumni of LMC is the type of experience that people don't regret. Graduates have a unique bond and are part of a strong network of professionals that contribute to the high quality of life in Medina County. The special insights, experiences, and opportunities afforded by being part of LMC are ones that I would recommend not passing up if given the chance. Like hundreds of others, you will be glad you got involved."

Dr. Dale Fortner

Vice President of Human Resources and Organizational Development, Sandridge Food Corporation

"Leadership Medina County's Signature program is a tremendous leadership development program designed for high performing and high potential employees. The program is very well designed and provides participants with opportunities to build their leadership and communication skills while connecting with other leaders in Medina County. Having recently moved to a Medina County based employer, LMC was a perfect way for me to re-engage and learn more about the area while networking with some amazing people!"

Amy French

Chief HR Officer, Westfield Bank
